

Alexandria Gazette

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 26, 1910.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7:10 and sets at 5:15. High water at 9:27 a. m. and 9:42 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section weather will be warmer with light rain tonight or Thursday; minimum temperature tonight about 42°; moderate to brisk southerly winds.

BASKETBALL.

The A. L. I. Amory was last night the scene of the fastest game of basketball of the season. The Young Men's Athletic Lyceum defeated the A. L. I. by the score of 18 to 14. The change from the regular umpire was a decided success. Estelle and Williams for the Lyceum started throughout the contest. It had been said that the Lyceum was a rough team but it was plainly shown that the A. L. I. could do as much roughing as the next one. For the A. L. I. Gaines and Diemel did the best work.

STANDING OF TEAMS.

Team	Won	Lost	Per Cent.
Y. M. A. L.	6	0	1,000
Old Dominion	3	2	.600
A. L. I.	2	4	.333
Fort Hunt	0	5	.000

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William Leavelle, colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $10.

Eljah Taylor, colored, charged with assault on Nellie Brooks, colored, was fined $5.

Martha Johnson, colored, charged with vagrancy, was fined $5.

Rafael Lee, colored, charged with non-support of his children, was dismissed with the understanding that he would in future look out for his offspring.

A young white man, charged with seduction, was dismissed.

STEAMER JAMESTOWN SAFE.

A dispatch from Buenos Aires, under date of January 23, states that the steamer Jamestown arrived there about a month ago, and under the name Colonial, is running on the river Plate, making daily trips from Buenos Aires to a point on the river about forty miles away.

The Jamestown made the run from Newport News in 31 days. She was blown out of her course at one time and exhausted her coal supply, but the steamer was towed into a South American port where she took on more coal and proceeded to her destination.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PARK.

The Washington Monument Association has purchased from the Golf Club the house known as the Golf Club house on George Washington Park. The house in the future will be known as Washington Monument Club house.

The Washington Monument Association has issued a deed in section 2 to Mr. Harvey Drowns. This makes his second purchase.

Mr. Alexander J. Wedderburn, jr., of Washington, has purchased for his daughter Helen a lot in section 2 of George Washington Park.

Mr. Alexander J. Wedderburn has purchased five lots in section 2, George Washington Park, and contemplates erecting a residence there.

OPERA HOUSE.

The famous western melodrama which has been in preparation by the Guy Johnson Company for some time past will be presented for the first time tonight. The play deals with life in the Rocky mountains in the days of the pioneers and is full of dramatic situations and startling climaxes. As a special feature, two celebrated western characters, Montana Jack and Ebel Roanbore, have been specially engaged for this play and will add to the reality of the action with characteristic pastimes of the cowboy, including "The Dance of the Flair."

THE BANQUET TOMORROW NIGHT.

All the arrangements for the Chamber of Commerce banquet to be held tomorrow night at Armory Hall are perfected and every indication points towards a most enjoyable affair. The committees in charge wishes to announce that the doors will be opened to the ticket holders at 8 p. m. and that it will be greatly appreciated if all the participants will be in their seats by 8:30.

THE NEW COMET.

The new comet could be plainly seen low in the southwestern heavens early last night, and many people were straining their optics to get a glimpse at the wanderer from the midst of profound. The comet is making a speed of more than 150 miles a second. It is now speeding away from the earth and soon by the last of the month, when it will no longer be visible, it will be about 160,000,000 miles distant.

ORIENTAL LODGE.

Oriental Lodge, No. 6, K. G. H. of Pythias, held an interesting meeting last night. There was a full attendance of members and P. C. J. S. Pollard, of Excelsior Lodge, of Baltimore, and other visitors were present. The lodge received two applications for membership. A programme of exercises will be rendered next meeting night under guidance of the order.

THE TOWN CLOCK.

The announcement that the clock in the steeple of the City Hall will soon be running again will be read with satisfaction by the entire community. The parts of the clock which it was necessary to renew have arrived from a northern factory and the mechanics who will place the clock in running order will soon come to this city and perform that work.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Miss Medora Wingfield took place this afternoon from the residence of her father on Wilkes street. The services were conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter.

The funeral of the late William Travers took place from the residence on Wilkes street this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelley.

The Regal Shoe for men in all the new fashions can be had of John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

DEATH OF MR. K. KEMPER.

Mr. K. Kemper, whose illness had recently been announced in the Gazette, died at 1:15 o'clock this morning at the home of his daughter in Washington. The deceased was in the 75th year of his age, having been born in Warrenton June 18, 1835. His funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of his son, Mr. E. H. Kemper, in Rosemont. The honorary pallbearers will be: Col. Arthur Herbert, Capt. Herbert Bryant, Jos. W. Eggleston, Grand Lodge of Virginia; E. E. Downham, Old Dominion Commandery; H. O. Ansley, Mount Vernon Chapter; Col. Francis L. Smith, Washington Lodge; Wm. L. Allen, Jackson Lodge; A. H. Barber, Kemper Lodge; John M. Johnson, the bar; W. A. Smoot, Confederate Veterans; Geo. Wise and Dr. Arthur Snowden. The active pallbearers will be: Dr. T. B. Cochran, M. L. Dinwiddie, Geo. H. Evans, J. E. Shinn, Robt. W. Fuller and Dr. Roy Adams.

Koetluako Kemper was a son of the late William S. Kemper. He came to Alexandria with his parents in early life, and was the eldest of three brothers. With Delaware and W. H. Kemper, both of whom are deceased, he began life as an educator. A short time previous to the breaking out of the civil war he went to Baanort, S. C., where he continued his profession as a teacher and when hostilities commenced he was made a captain in a South Carolina battery.

He continued in the service of the Confederacy until the close of hostilities when he returned to this city and reopened the Alexandria Academy, an institution for the instruction of young women. Mr. Kemper was a graduate of the University of Virginia and was in every way qualified as a teacher, but the adoption of the Underwood constitution in 1869 and the installation of the public school system in Virginia closed most private institutions, among them that conducted by Mr. Kemper. He engaged subsequently in the practice of law, and in 1874 was elected mayor to fill the unexpired term of the late Wm. H. Berkeley, who had been made postmaster. He was elected mayor in 1875 and in 1876 was defeated by the late Dr. J. B. Johnson. He was elected again in 1877 and continued in office until 1879, when he was defeated by the late Courtland H. Smith. Mr. Kemper subsequently served terms as corporation attorney. During Grover Cleveland's first administration (1885-1889) he held a position under General Joseph E. Johnston, who was railroad commissioner. Upon relinquishing that place he concentrated his attention on the practice of law, and was at times attorney for certain corporations chartered in this city.

In 1892, when Mr. Richard L. Oarno resigned his position as city superintendent of schools, there was a spontaneous call to Mr. Kemper to fill the vacancy. He was forthwith chosen and continued in the discharge of the duties incident to the place until last year, when he was succeeded by Captain W. H. Sweeney. Mr. Kemper had for many years devoted much of his time to the study of the principles and ritual of freemasonry. He was a pastmaster of Alexandria Washington Lodge and had occupied all the chairs in Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and Old Dominion Commandery of Knights Templar. He was also one of the Past Grand Masters of Masons of Virginia and Past Commander of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate veterans. At the time of his death he was secretary of Mount Vernon Chapter, R. A. M. The deceased had throughout most of his life been a member of the Second Presbyterian Church, and since 1888 had been an elder. Until recently he had devoted much of his labors to the Sunday school work of that church. He was at one time superintendent, and for years after he had laid aside the responsibilities of that position he taught classes. Though a scholar and possessing vast knowledge, he was unobtrusive and devoid of aggressiveness. Mr. Kemper's gentlemanly deportment made him friends wherever he was known. While for many years a prominent and representative Alexandria, he was also well known throughout the state, and his death will be sincerely regretted by his many friends and acquaintances. He leaves four children—two sons and two daughters—and a sister, Miss Charlotte Kemper, now engaged in missionary work in Brazil. Mr. Kemper married Miss Ira Etsa Garrett, of Albemarle, who died in 1896.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

At a meeting last night of the committee on streets of the City Council the contract for paving Cameron street, between Fairfax and Royal, was awarded to the McMahon Company, of Norfolk. Granite curbing and vitrified brick will be used in the work. The pavement will be commenced as soon as the weather will permit.

LECTURE POSTPONED.

Owing to the fact that the president gives a reception to Congress on Tuesday evening, February 1, Senator Taylor's lecture "The Fiddle and the Bow" has been postponed until Monday evening, February 7. Persons holding tickets will please note the change.

W. C. T. U.

The regular business meeting of the Allison W. C. T. U. will be held tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Amy C. Weech 901 Prince street.

PERSONAL.

Miss Dorsey Ashton last night very charmingly entertained a number of her friends at her home on Duke street.

The alarm fire last yesterday evening was caused by the burning of a bag of rags at Gibbon and Columbus streets.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The first degree was conferred upon three candidates at the meeting last night of Septia Lodge of Odd Fellows.

The Ode will meet tonight. Much important business is to be transacted and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. T. A. Stoenburg of 2465 18th street, northwest Washington was the winner of a handsome umbrella recently raffled by Kenrick Council, O. W. B. L.

An interesting meeting of the junior assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, was held at the Norton Memorial Hall, last night.

The oyster supper given at the Young People's building last night by the young ladies of Capt. George W. Keys' class was a very successful affair.

There was a fire drill at Washington school building this morning. Teachers and scholars made their way out to places of safety in 30 seconds.

A regular meeting of Fitzgerald council No. 459, K. of C., will be held tonight. The newly-elected officers will be installed after which a supper will be given.

In the Circuit Court today Mrs. Isabella Fornhill qualified as administratrix of Archie Fornhill; also as guardian of Marlow R. and Kenneth D. B. Fornhill.

Herbert Wrenn, son of the late Robert Wrenn, a native of this city, died in Washington last night. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

Miss Ida Breen will do artistic work as the Colonel's ward in "A Modern Avarice" by E. A. Dramatic Club, at the Opera House January 28th, for the benefit of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten.

The motto of a horse is shown by his arched head and high step. The motto of a man is in the way he walks and the way he talks. He shows it in the way he throws his shoulders back and his head forward. You can always tell a laggard by his look. When a "man" looks you in the eye without a quiver, and grips your hand firm and hard you know he's the man who always accomplishes what he starts out to do. In the first place he's particular. He demands those irresistibly delicious Auth Sausages and Food Products from the Auth Market and enjoys the health of the man who is worth while. ## SEMINOLE TRIBE.

The council chamber of Seminole Tribe, No. 25, N. O. B. M., now located in the Elks' Hall, was packed to the doors last night, the occasion being the visitation of the Great Sachem of the District of Columbia, Otto H. Fischer, accompanied by a degree team from Minneola Tribe, of Washington, D. C., which in magnificent style conferred the three degrees of membership on five candidates. The scene was most impressive when certain scenic effect was introduced by the visiting team which in connection with their work brought forth expressions of praise and congratulations from the evening's programme a recess was declared by Sachem D. E. Robey, of the local tribe, who called upon Great Sachem Fischer for a speech. The latter responded in a manner befitting the dignity of his high office during the course of which he congratulated the tribe on its high standard of membership, its rapid growth and its apparent determination to further the cause of "Freedom, Friendship and Charity," closing with sincere expressions of fraternal feeling which he was grateful to acknowledge was manifesting itself on the part of every Red Man in Alexandria and the District of Columbia. Mr. Fischer was followed by Past Great Sachem of Ohio Heiler, Great Senator Sagamore Allison, Grand Chief of Records Trippett, both of the District of Columbia, and Great Sachem of Virginia W. B. Nicklin, whose remarks were along congratulatory lines and otherwise abundant in genuine good will. Previous to the speech making a light collation was served during which visitors and natives exchanged many happy greetings. After the usual formalities the representatives and their escorts left for Washington on the 11:55 o'clock train much pleased with their visit. It is the purpose of this tribe to pay fraternal visits in the near future to the Washington tribes at which time there will, no doubt, be a large delegation from the two Alexandria organizations in attendance.

Girls Attack Strike Breakers.

New York, Jan. 26.—One of the most serious riots of the shirtwaist maker's strike, occurred today in Brooklyn, when a number of the striking girls boarded a street car and attacked several strike-breakers on their way to work. As the car stopped at Park Avenue, a number of the striking girls boarded the car and attacked the strike-breakers. The strikers pulled hair, scratched faces, tore hats off and mauled their victims. Policemen O'Connor tried to stop the riot, and the girls whipped him. The police reserves were summoned and quelled the riot, arresting four girls.

Wedding.

New York, Jan. 26.—Miss Blanche M. Oelrich, one of the best known of the society buds, and Leonard M. Thomas, of Philadelphia, were married this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Oelrich, on Park avenue. Mgr. Lavella, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, officiated and the ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate families of the contracting parties. The bride's nephew, Master Charles Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter D. Martin, and Kathleen Vanderbilt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt, acted as train bearers.

The English Election.

London, Jan. 26.—Complete returns from yesterday's voting bring the totals up to the following: Conservatives 254, Liberals 238, nationalists 72, laborites 37. The strong showing by the liberals makes it practically certain that they and the laborites will have a majority of forty over the conservatives without counting on the nationalists.

It is claimed that between four and five hundred infants die annually from neglect in Richmond.

A rare bargain and one that is lasting can be obtained at the shoe store of John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street. Look at the window display.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son GEORGE H. NORRIS, who departed this life January 26th, 1910, six years ago today.

God call d him home, it was his will, But in our hearts we love him still, His memory is as dear today As in the hour he passed away. As in the hour he passed away, By His Mother AND FATHER.

Princess Louise Loses Her Suit.
Paris, Jan. 26.—Princess Louise, eldest daughter of the late King Leopold of Belgium, lost her suit today to recover from Baroness Vaughan, the morganatic wife of the king, the latter's villa at Ballinacorney. The court decided that the villa was the property of the baroness and that it was not a royal residence.

Murderer Arrested.
Cibourg, Oct., Jan. 26.—George Merento, an Italian laborer, was today lodged in jail on the charge of murdering one man and severely wounding two others. Merento was employed in the construction camp of the Canadian Northern Railroad. He got into an altercation early today with Frank Marino the foreman, and killed him. In his efforts to escape he shot two other Italians.

Indictments Quashed.
New York, Jan. 26.—Judge Honee has granted the motion and ordered the indictment quashed charging criminal libel against the Press Publishing Company, publishers of the New York World, growing out of its publication of charges reflecting on a number of persons in connection with the Panama Canal purchase.

New York Stock Market.
New York, Jan. 26.—Influenced by the favorable statement of the United States Steel Corporation the stock market opened strong with advances of 1 to 4 points. The character of Washington advices was reassuring.

The tone continued strong throughout the forenoon. After the initial advance there was some selling for accounts that had been impaired by the recent bear but this soon ceased and prices continued to advance.

In the late forenoon the market ruled fairly steady although recessions of about 1 point were sustained from the highest of the day.
